

Dear Committee,

I think redistricting maps should not be gerrymandered to benefit one political party over another. Each voter should be given a fair chance to have their will heard. I object to maps that have become convoluted in order to favor the party in power.

Sincerely,

Susan Francis