STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Twenty One

AN ACT allowing the destruction of valueless contraband by the chief of police, the chief's designee, the county sheriff, or the sheriff's designee.

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

1 1 Destruction of Property Held by Police. Amend RSA 471-C:13 to read as follows:

2 471-C:13 Property Held in Police Department Property Rooms.

3 I. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, all noncontraband
4 abandoned or lost personal property which has a value of $250 or more and which has been held in a
5 police department or sheriff's office property room for a period of at least 180 days, or which has a 6 value of less than $250 and has been held for a period of at least 90 days, may be disposed of by the 7 police department or sheriff's office by returning it to the finder, if known, if the finder was other 8 than a police officer or a sheriff who discovered the property during the course of the police officer's 9 or sheriff's usual police duties. If the property cannot be returned to the finder, the property shall 10 be sold at public auction with the proceeds to be turned over to the town or city treasurer[-], except 11 that any bicycle which has been held in a police department or sheriff's office property room for a 12 period of 90 days or more shall be sold at public auction with the proceeds to be used for the support 13 of local bicycle safety programs, or, if no local bicycle safety programs are available, then with the 14 consent of the local governing body, to be used for any other purpose. The police department or 15 sheriff's office shall be relieved of all liability for any claim thereafter arising or made with respect 16 to property disposed of under this section. A good faith judgment of the value of the property by the 17 police department or sheriff's office shall be determinative for purposes of this section.

18 II. If the noncontraband abandoned or lost personal property cannot be returned 19 under paragraph I, and if it is determined in good faith by the police department or 20 sheriff's office to be of no monetary value, then such property may be destroyed or disposed 21 of as directed by the chief of police for the department or the chief's designee, or the county
22 sheriff or the sheriff's designee.

23 2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.
