House Speaker Applauds Governor's Decision to End State of Emergency

CONCORD - New Hampshire House Speaker Sherman Packard (R-Londonderry) issued a statement following Governor Sununu's announcement that the State of Emergency would expire on June 11th, 2021.

"This is the right decision for the people of New Hampshire," Packard said. "Our state is well positioned to move forward without the need for a state of emergency. New Hampshire has managed through this crisis better than most states. Governor Sununu's announcement today is a critical step in transitioning to normalcy."
