15 upon such terms and conditions as the order may prescribe.

15 the limited liability company may recover from the withdrawing member damages for breach of the 16 operating agreement or as a result of the wrongful conduct, which may include the reasonable costs 17 of obtaining replacement of any services the withdrawn member was obligated to provide to the 18 limited liability company.

19 III. The limited liability company may offset its damages under paragraph II against the 20 amount otherwise distributable to the withdrawing member, in addition to pursuing any remedies
21 provided for in the operating agreement or otherwise available under applicable law.

22 IV. Unless the operating agreement provides otherwise, in the case of a limited liability 23 company for a definite term or particular undertaking, a withdrawal by a member before the 24 expiration of the term or the accomplishment of the purpose is wrongful conduct for which the 25 limited liability company may recover damages under the provisions of paragraph II.

26 304-C:104 Judicial Removal of Member.

27 I. An operating agreement may provide for the removal of a member by any method or

7 member will engage in any other conduct that is certain or reasonably likely to cause material injury
8 to the limited liability company.

9 (d) The court may remove a member by judicial order if the member has engaged, or is 12 III. In responding to an application under paragraph II, the court shall have discretion to 13 provide relief to the applicant, the limited liability company, or the member sought to be removed

22 breach, actions or omissions or threatened actions or omissions that constitute cause for removal of 23 the member.

26 RSA 304-C:100, RSA 304-C:101, or RSA 304-C:102, is entitled to receive any accrued distribution to 27 which the member was entitled at the time of dissociation.

28 II. Unless the operating agreement provides otherwise, a dissociating member is not entitled 29 to receive any payment for the value of the member's membership rights, including the member's 30 limited liability company interest, as of the date of dissociation.

31 III. If a dissociated member receives no payment for the value of the member's membership 32 rights, including the member's limited liability company interest, the dissociated member shall 33 continue to have the rights of a transferee of a limited liability company interest under RSA 304-

11 of a member except rights in respect of the transferred limited liability company interest.

12 III. Unless the operating agreement provides otherwise, a limited liability company interest 13 entitles the transferee to receive, to the extent transferred, the allocations and distributions to which 14 the transferor would otherwise be entitled.

15 IV. Unless the operating agreement provides otherwise, and except to the extent assumed by 16 agreement of the transferee of the limited liability company interest, until a transferee of a limited
17 liability company interest becomes a member, the transferee shall have no liability as a member 18 solely as a result of the transfer.

19 304-C:124 Right of Transferee of Limited Liability Company Interest or Other Membership
20 Rights to Become a Member. Notwithstanding any provision of RSA 304-C:46 to the contrary, unless 21 the operating agreement or RSA 304-C:153 provide otherwise, a transferee of a limited liability 22 company interest or other membership rights shall become a member, to the extent of the 23 transferred rights, upon the unanimous vote of all of the members of the limited liability company 24 other than the transferring member.

25 304-C:125 Miscellaneous Rights, Duties, and Liabilities of Transferors and Transferees of 26 Membership Rights.

27 I. A transferee of a membership right who becomes a member shall hold and may exercise
28 only the membership rights transferred to the transferee. Except as provided in paragraph II, a 29 transferee of a membership right who becomes a member shall have only the duties and liabilities of 30 a member to which the transferee is subject under the operating agreement or under this act.

31 II. Notwithstanding paragraph I, unless the operating agreement provides otherwise:

32 (a) Except as provided in subparagraph II(b), a transferee of membership rights who 33 becomes a member shall not be liable for liabilities to the limited liability company or to other 34 persons to which the transferor was subject before the transfer.

35 (b) A transferee of all of a member's membership rights who becomes a member shall be 36 liable for the outstanding obligations of the transferor to make contributions to the limited liability

1 company to which the transferor was subject before the transfer.

2 (c) Notwithstanding subparagraph (b), a transferee of all of a member's membership
3 rights who becomes a member shall not be obligated for liabilities of the transferor to make 4 contributions to the limited liability company that were unknown to the transferee at the time of the 5 transfer and that the transferee could not reasonably ascertain from the operating agreement.

6 (d) A transferee of part or all of a member's membership rights who becomes a member
7 shall not be liable for any obligation of the transferor to return to the limited liability company
8 unlawful distributions to the transferor under RSA 304-C:93.

9 III. Unless the operating agreement provides otherwise, a transferor of part or all of the 10 transferor's membership rights shall not be released from the liabilities of the transferor to the 11 limited liability company or to other persons to which the transferor was subject before the transfer 12 whether or not the transferee becomes a member.

13 Charging Orders

14 304-C:126 Charging Orders.

15 I. On application to a court of competent jurisdiction by any judgment creditor of (a) a 16 member of a limited liability company (the "debtor-member") or (b) a transferee of all or any part of 17 a member's limited liability company interest (a "transferee"), the court may enter a charging order 18 against the limited liability company in respect of the limited liability company interest of the 19 debtor-member or the transferee for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment plus interest.

20 II.(a) A charging order constitutes a lien on a debtor-member's or transferee's limited
21 liability company interest.

22 (b) Under a charging order, a judgment creditor has only the right to receive 23 distributions to which the debtor-member or transferee would otherwise have been entitled from the 24 limited liability company, and only to the extent of the judgment, including interest.

25 (c) A judgment debtor that obtains a charging order does not thereby become the holder
26 of the debtor-member's or transferee's limited liability company interest.

27 III. This section does not deprive any judgment debtor of the benefit of any exemption law 28 applicable to the judgment debtor's membership rights.

29 IV. Except as provided in paragraphs VI and VII, a charging order is the sole and exclusive 30 remedy by which a judgment creditor of a debtor-member may satisfy a judgment from a debtor-
31 member's membership rights or from the assets of a limited liability company. This section is not 32 exclusive as to the rights of creditors with respect to the limited liability company interests of transferees.

33 V.(a) The remedy of execution upon a debtor-member's membership rights shall be 34 unavailable to a judgment creditor attempting to satisfy a judgment against a debtor-member of a 35 multi-member limited liability company.

36 (b) Except as provided in paragraph VI, the remedy of execution upon a debtor-member's

CHAPTER 232
SB 203-FN-A – FINAL VERSION
- Page 38 -

1 membership rights shall be unavailable to a judgment creditor attempting to satisfy a judgment
2 against a debtor-member of a single-member limited liability company.

3 VI.(a) If a judgment creditor shows to the satisfaction of a court of competent jurisdiction
4 that distributions under a charging order in respect of the limited liability company interest of a
5 debtor-member of a single-member limited liability company will not satisfy the judgment within a
6 reasonable time, a charging order shall not be the sole and exclusive remedy by which the judgment
7 creditor may satisfy the judgment against the member.

8 (b) Upon such a showing, the court may order the sale of the debtor-member's 9 membership rights under an execution sale.

10 (c) A judgment creditor may make a showing to the court under subparagraph (a) that 11 distributions under a charging order will not satisfy a judgment either (1) when the judgment
12 creditor applies for the entry of a charging order under a member of a single-member limited liability 13 company or (2) at any time thereafter.

14 VII. If, under paragraph VI, a court orders an execution sale of the membership rights of a 15 debtor-member that is the member of a single-member limited liability company:

16 (a) The purchaser shall obtain all of the member's membership rights and not merely the 17 rights of an transferee;

18 (b) The purchaser shall become the member of the limited liability company; and

19 (c) The debtor-member whose membership rights have been sold shall cease to be a 20 member.

21 VIII. Nothing in this section shall limit:

22 (a) The rights of a creditor that has been granted a consensual security interest in the 23 limited liability company interest or other membership rights of a member to pursue the remedies
24 available to the secured creditor under other law applicable to secured creditors;

25 (b) The principles of law and equity which affect fraudulent transfers;

26 (c) The availability of the equitable principles of veil-piercing, equitable lien, or 27 constructive trust, or other equitable principles not inconsistent with this section; or

28 (d) The continuing jurisdiction of the court to enforce its charging order in a manner
29 consistent with this section.

30 IX. In any action in a court of this state in which a judgment creditor seeks a charging order 31 against a member or transferee of a foreign limited liability company, this section shall apply.

Limited Liability Company Dissolutions

32
33 304-C:127 Effect of Dissolution of Limited Liability Company. A limited liability company 34 dissolved under this subdivision continues its existence as a limited liability company, but, on and 35 after its dissolution, it may not carry on any business or other activity except that which is necessary 36 to wind up and liquidate its business and internal affairs.

CHAPTER 232
SB 203-FN-A – FINAL VERSION
- Page 39 -

1           304-C:128 Dissolution, Winding-Up and Liquidation—Definitions. For purposes of this act, the 2 following terms shall have the following meanings:

3           I. Dissolution. The dissolution of a limited liability company shall mean a change of its 4 purpose to that of a limited liability company that may not carry on any business or other activity
5 except as provided in RSA 304-C:127.

6           II. Winding-up. The winding-up of a limited liability company shall mean the process of 7 concluding its existing business activities and all other activities in which it is engaged; concluding 8 its internal affairs; and preparing for its liquidation.

9           III. Liquidation. The liquidation of a limited liability company shall mean the sale or other 10 disposition of its assets and the distribution of these assets, or of the proceeds of the sale or other 11 disposition of them, to its creditors and to the members.

12           304-C:129 Events of Dissolution—in General. A limited liability company shall be dissolved and 13 its business and other activities and its internal affairs shall be wound up upon the first to occur of 14 the events set forth in this section. The effective date of each such dissolution shall be as set as 15 follows:

16           I. A limited liability company shall be dissolved as provided in the operating agreement.
17 The effective date of the dissolution shall be the date of occurrence of the event or circumstance 18 causing the dissolution under the operating agreement.

19           II. Unless the operating agreement provides otherwise, a limited liability company shall be 20 dissolved by majority vote of the members. The vote shall be in writing and shall specify the 21 effective date of the dissolution. If there is no such writing, the effective date of the dissolution shall 22 be the date of the vote.

23           III. A limited liability company shall be dissolved if a court of competent jurisdiction enters a 24 final decree of judicial dissolution under RSA 304-C:134 or RSA 304-C:135. The decree shall specify 25 the effective date of the dissolution.

26           IV. A limited liability company shall be dissolved if the New Hampshire secretary of state 27 issues a notice of administrative dissolution under RSA 304-C:136. The notice of administrative 28 dissolution shall specify the effective date of the dissolution.

29           304-C:130 Revocation of Dissolution by Majority Vote of the Members.

30           I. Notwithstanding the dissolution of a limited liability company by majority vote of the 31 members, and unless the operating agreement provides otherwise, a limited liability company shall 32 not be dissolved and its internal affairs shall not be wound up if, before the filing of a certificate of 33 cancellation of the limited liability company in the office of the secretary of state, the limited liability 34 company is continued by majority vote of the members.

35           II. A continuation of the limited liability company under paragraph I shall be retroactive to 36 the effective date of the limited liability company's dissolution.

CHAPTER 232
- Page 40 -

1           III. After the members have dissolved the limited liability company under RSA 304-C:129, I,
2 they may revoke the dissolution at any time before completing the wind-up of the limited liability 3 company.

4           IV. When a revocation of a dissolution becomes effective under paragraph I:

5               (a) The limited liability company shall be deemed to have carried on its business as if the 6 dissolution had never occurred; and

7               (b) All of its otherwise legally valid actions during the period after its dissolution shall be 8 deemed to have been legally valid.

9           304-C:131 Non-Dissolution of Single-Member Limited Liability Company.

10           I. Unless the operating agreement provides otherwise, upon the death of an individual who 11 is the only member of a limited liability company, the individual's membership shall pass to the 12 individual's estate and the limited liability company shall not be dissolved.

13           II. Unless the operating agreement provides otherwise, upon the dissolution of an entity that 14 is the only member of a limited liability company or upon the termination of a trust that is the only 15 member of a limited liability company, the membership of the limited liability company shall pass
16 automatically to the successor in interest of the entity or trust and the limited liability company 17 shall not be dissolved.

18           304-C:132 Non-Dissolution of Limited Liability Company Upon Member Dissociation.

19           I. Unless the operating agreement provides otherwise and except as provided in paragraph II:

20               (a) The death, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of any member or the 21 occurrence of any other event whose occurrence causes the dissociation of the member shall not cause 22 the limited liability company to be dissolved or its internal affairs to be wound up; and

23               (b) Upon the occurrence of any such event, the limited liability company shall be 24 continued without dissolution.

25           II. The resignation of the last remaining member of a limited liability company shall 26 terminate the limited liability company's existence as an entity.

27           304-C:133 Appointment of Successor Member Under Operating Agreement. An operating 28 agreement may provide for the admission of a substitute member upon the dissociation of the last 29 remaining member of a limited liability company.

30           304-C:134 Judicial Dissolution Upon Application by a Member.

31           I. Unless the operating agreement provides otherwise, upon application by a member, the 32 superior court may decree the dissolution of a limited liability company in any of the following
33 circumstances:

34               (a) It is not reasonably practicable for the limited liability company to carry on its 35 business.

36               (b) A voting deadlock has occurred among the members and, upon the occurrence of the

CHAPTER 232
SB 203-FN-A – FINAL VERSION
- Page 41 -

1 deadlock, the members have been unable to break the deadlock; and because of the deadlock, either
2 irreparable injury to the limited liability company is threatened or being suffered or the limited
3 liability company's business and internal affairs can no longer be conducted to its advantage.

4 II. In a proceeding brought under paragraph I, a court may order a remedy other than 5 dissolution.

6 III. A member shall have the right to apply to the superior court to decree the dissolution of 7 a limited liability company, and the superior court may issue such a decree, in any of the following
8 circumstances:

9 (a) The limited liability company has procured its certificate of formation through fraud.

10 (b) The limited liability company has exceeded or abused its lawful authority under this act.

11 (c) The limited liability company has carried on, conducted, or transacted its business in 12 a persistently fraudulent or illegal manner.

13 (d) The limited liability company has abused its power contrary to the public policy of 14 the state.

15 304-C:135 Judicial Dissolution Upon Application by Attorney General. The attorney general 16 may apply to the superior court for a decree of dissolution of a limited liability company upon the 17 occurrence of any of the grounds stated in RSA 304-C:134, III.

18 304-C:136 Administrative Dissolution. The secretary of state may administratively dissolve a 19 limited liability company if:

20 I. For 2 consecutive years, the limited liability company does not pay within 60 days after 21 they are due any annual report fees or penalties imposed by this act or other law;

22 II. The limited liability company for 2 consecutive years does not deliver its annual report to 23 the secretary of state within 60 days after it is due;

24 III. The limited liability company is without a registered agent or registered office in this 25 state for 60 days or more;

26 IV. The limited liability company does not notify the secretary of state within 60 days that 27 its registered agent or registered office has been changed, that its registered agent has resigned, or 28 that its registered office has been discontinued; or 29 V. The limited liability company's period of duration stated in its certificate of formation expires.

30 304-C:137 Procedures For and Certain Effects of Administrative Dissolution.

31 I. If the secretary of state determines that one or more grounds exist under RSA 304-C:136
32 for dissolving a limited liability company, the secretary of state shall administratively dissolve the 33 limited liability company by signing a notice of dissolution and mailing the notice and an application
34 for reinstatement to the limited liability company at its principal address. The notice shall recite the 35 grounds for the dissolution and the effective date of the dissolution.

36 II. The administrative dissolution of a limited liability company shall not terminate the

CHAPTER 232
SB 203-FN-A – FINAL VERSION
- Page 42 -

1 authority of its registered agent.

2 III. Except with the written consent of the limited liability company, the secretary of state
3 shall not, for a period of 120 days after the date of mailing of a notice of administrative dissolution
4 under paragraph I, permit any individual or any corporation, limited liability company, or other 5 business entity to assume:

6 (a) A name that is the same as or similar to the name of a limited liability company 7 administratively dissolved under this section; or

8 (b) A trade name registered by the limited liability company under RSA 349.

9 304-C:138 Reinstatement Following Administrative Dissolution.

10 I. A limited liability company administratively dissolved under RSA 304-C:137 may apply to 11 the secretary of state for reinstatement within 3 years after the effective date of dissolution. The 12 application shall:

13 (a) Recite the name of the limited liability company and the effective date of its 14 administrative dissolution;

15 (b) State that the ground or grounds for dissolution either did not exist or have been 16 eliminated;

17 (c) State that the limited liability company's name or proposed name satisfies the 18 requirements of RSA 304-C:32; and

19 (d) Contain a certificate from the New Hampshire department of revenue administration
20 in accordance with RSA 77-A:18, III, if the application is received by the secretary of state more 21 than 120 days after the notice of administrative dissolution is mailed.

22 II.(a) If the secretary of state determines that the application under paragraph I contains 23 the information required by that paragraph, that the information is correct, and that the limited 24 liability company name is available for registration, the secretary may (1) cancel the notice of 25 dissolution, (2) prepare a notice of reinstatement that recites the secretary's determination and the 26 effective date of reinstatement, and (3) mail the notice to the limited liability company.

27 (b) If the application for reinstatement includes a change of name of the limited liability
28 company, the notice shall set forth the change of name of the limited liability company. The notice 29 shall constitute an amendment to the certificate of formation.

30 III. When the reinstatement is effective:

31 (a) It shall relate back to and take effect as of the effective date of the administrative 32 dissolution;

33 (b) The limited liability company may resume carrying on its business as if the 34 administrative dissolution had never occurred; and

35 (c) All of the limited liability company's otherwise legally valid actions during the period
36 if its dissolution shall be deemed to be legally valid.

1           304-C:139 Winding Up And Liquidation Of Limited Liability Companies.

2           I. Unless the operating agreement provides otherwise, the members or managers who have 3 authority under RSA 304-C:47 to manage the limited liability company before the dissolution may 4 wind up and liquidate the business and internal affairs of the limited liability company.

5           II. Upon application to the superior court by a member or by a member's legal representative
6 or by the transferee of all or any part of a member's limited liability company interest, the superior
7 court may appoint a liquidating trustee to wind up and liquidate a limited liability company if the 8 applicant shows that one or more of the members or managers have engaged in wrongful conduct or 9 if there is any other equitable cause for the appointment.

10          III. The persons winding up the business or internal affairs of the limited liability company
11 and liquidating the limited liability company in the name of and for and on behalf of the limited 12 liability company may:

13           (a) Prosecute and defend suits;

14           (b) Settle and close the business of the limited liability company;

15           (c) Dispose of and transfer the property of the limited liability company;

16           (d) Discharge the liabilities of the limited liability company;

17           (e) Distribute to the members any remaining assets of the limited liability company; and

18           (f) Take any other actions necessary or appropriate to wind up and liquidate the limited
19 liability company.

20          IV. Persons may act in accordance with this section without affecting the personal liability of 21 members and managers and without imposing personal liability on a liquidating trustee.

22          304-C:140 Agency Power of Managers and Members After Limited Liability Company
23 Dissolution.

24          I. Unless the operating agreement or paragraphs II and III provide otherwise, after the 25 dissolution of the limited liability company, each of the members having authority to wind up the 26 limited liability company's business and internal affairs and to liquidate the limited liability 27 company can bind the limited liability company:

28           (a) By any act appropriate for winding up and liquidating the limited liability company 29 or for completing transactions unfinished at its dissolution; and

30           (b) By any act that would have bound the limited liability company if it had not been 31 dissolved if the other party to the transaction does not have actual notice of the dissolution.

32          II. An act of a member which would be binding under paragraph I or would be otherwise
33 authorized but which is in contravention of a restriction on authority in the operating agreement
34 shall not bind the limited liability company to persons having actual knowledge of the restriction.

35          III. If the operating agreement of a limited liability company interest vests the management 36 of the limited liability company in a manager or managers:

CHAPTER 232
SB 203-FN-A – FINAL VERSION
- Page 44 -

1 (a) A manager shall have the authority provided to members in RSA 304-C:139, I; and

2 (b) No member shall have this authority unless the member is also a manager.

3 304-C:141 Certificate of Dissolution; Distributions of Assets Upon Liquidation of Limited
4 Liability Company.

5 I. Before making any distributions of assets to any members and managers upon the 6 winding up of a limited liability company, the limited liability company or any person or persons 7 authorized to wind up the limited liability company's internal affairs shall first obtain a certificate of 8 dissolution from the department of revenue administration in accordance with RSA 77-A:18.

9 II. Upon the completion of the winding up of a limited liability company, the assets of the 10 limited liability company shall be distributed as follows:

11 (a) Payment, or adequate provision for payment, shall be made to creditors, including, to 12 the extent permitted by law, members who are creditors in satisfaction of liabilities of the limited
13 liability company;

14 (b) Unless an operating agreement provides otherwise, to members and former members
15 in satisfaction of liabilities for distributions under RSA 304-C:94 and RSA 304-C:105; and

16 (c) Unless an operating agreement provides otherwise, to members first for the return of 17 their contributions and second respecting their limited liability company interests.

18 III. Distributions to members and former members under subparagraph II(b) shall be 19 allocated in accordance with RSA 304-C:95.

20 304-C:142 Certificate of Cancellation of Certificate of Formation.

21 I. After the dissolution of the limited liability company under RSA 304-C:129, and the 22 completion of its winding-up and liquidation, the limited liability company may file a certificate of 23 cancellation with the secretary of state.

24 II. This certificate shall set forth:

25 (a) The name of the limited liability company;

26 (b) The reason for filing the certificate of cancellation;

27 (c) The effective date, if it is not to be effective upon the filing; and

28 (d) Any other information the members or managers filing the certificate shall deem 29 proper.

30 III. If the certificate specifies a delayed effective time and date, the document becomes 31 effective at the time and date specified. If a delayed effective date but no time is specified, the 32 document becomes effective at the time it is received on that date. A delayed effective date for a 33 document may not be later than the ninetieth day after the date it is filed.

34 304-C:143 Dispositions of Known Claims Against Dissolved Limited Liability Company.

35 I. After the effective date of the dissolution of a limited liability company, a limited liability 36 company may dispose of known claims against it by complying with the procedures described in

CHAPTER 232
SB 203-FN-A – FINAL VERSION
- Page 45 -

1 paragraph II.

2 II. The limited liability company shall, within 60 days after the effective date of its 3 dissolution, notify claimants who have known claims against it by sending them by regular mail a 4 written notice of its dissolution. The written notice of dissolution shall:

5 (a) State the effective date of the dissolution;

6 (b) State the deadline, which may not be fewer than 120 days after the date of the 7 written notice, by which the limited liability company must receive a written claim from the 8 claimant;

9 (c) Describe the information that must be included in the written claim, which 10 information shall include only information that is reasonable for the limited liability company to 11 require of the claimant;

12 (d) Provide a mailing address where the written claim shall be sent; and

13 (e) State that the claim will be barred if the limited liability company does not receive 14 the written claim by the deadline set forth pursuant to subparagraph (b).

15 III. A known claim against the limited liability company shall be barred if the limited 16 liability company gives the claimant a written notice under paragraph II and the claimant fails to 17 deliver a written claim to the limited liability company by the deadline set forth in subparagraph
18 II(b).

19 IV. A known claim against the limited liability company shall be barred if:

20 (a) The limited liability company gives a claimant a written notice of a known claim in 21 accordance with paragraph II.

22 (b) The claimant delivers a written claim to the limited liability company by the deadline
23 set forth in subparagraph II(b);

24 (c) The limited liability company provides the claimant with a written rejection of the 25 written claim within 30 days after receiving the written claim; and

26 (d) The claimant fails to commence a proceeding against the limited liability company to 27 enforce the claim within 90 days after the date of the rejection notice.

28 V. For purposes of this subdivision, a “known claim” does not include a contingent liability or 29 a claim based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.

30 304-C:144 Disposition of Unknown Claims Against Dissolved Limited Liability Company.

31 I. After a limited liability company has been dissolved, it may dispose of unknown claims 32 against it by following the procedures described in paragraph II.

33 II. A limited liability company shall publish a notice stating that it has been dissolved and 34 that it is winding up its business and internal affairs. In this notice, it shall request that persons 35 with claims against it present them to it in accordance with the notice.

36 (a) The notice must be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county

- Page 46 -

1 where the limited liability company's principal office, or, if none in this state, its registered office, is 2 located.

3 (b) The notice must state the effective date of the limited liability company's dissolution.

4 (c) The notice must contain the information that must be included in a claim, which 5 information shall include only information that is reasonable for the limited liability company to 6 require of the claimant.

7 (d) The notice must provide a mailing address where the claim shall be sent.

8 (e) The notice must state that a claim against the limited liability company will be

2 (c) Set a date by which the limited liability company must receive the payment demand,
3 which date may not be fewer than 30 days and not more than 60 days after the date of the notice
4 required by paragraph I is sent; and

5 (d) Be accompanied by a copy of this subdivision if the limited liability company has not 6 previously sent a copy of this subdivision to the member under RSA 304-C:162.

7 304-C:165 Duty of Dissenters to Demand Payment, Etc.

8 I. A member sent a dissenters' notice described in RSA 304-C:164 must demand payment
9 and certify whether the member acquired the limited liability company interest before the date
10 required to be set forth in the dissenters' notice under RSA 304-C:164.

11 II. A member who demands payment under paragraph I retains all of the rights of a member
12 until those rights are canceled or modified by completion of the proposed action of the limited
13 liability company.

14 III. A member who does not demand payment by the date set forth in the dissenters' notice 15 is not entitled to payment of fair value for such member's membership rights under this subdivision.

16 IV. A demand for payment filed by a member may not be withdrawn unless the limited
17 liability company with which it was filed or the surviving limited liability company or other business 18 entity consents to such withdrawal.

19 304-C:166 Limited Liability Companies' Making of Payments to Dissenting Members.

20 I. Except as provided in RSA 304-C:168, as soon as the proposed limited liability company
21 action is effectuated, or upon receipt of a payment demand, whichever is later, the limited liability
22 company shall pay each dissenter who complied with RSA 304-C:165 the amount the limited liability
23 company estimates to be the fair value of such dissenter's membership rights, plus accrued interest.

24 II. The payment must be accompanied by:

25 (a) The limited liability company's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not 26 more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, and the latest 27 available interim financial statements, if any;

28 (b) A statement of the limited liability company's estimate of the fair value of the 29 membership rights;

33 copy of this subdivision to the member under RSA 304-C:162 or RSA 304-C:164.

34 304-C:167 Limited Liability Company Failures to Take Actions Giving Rise to Dissenters'
35 Rights. If the limited liability company does not effectuate the proposed action that gave rise to the 36 dissenters' rights within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment, it shall send a new

1 dissenters' notice under RSA 304-C:162 and repeat the payment demand procedure if it effectuates
2 the proposed action.

3 304-C:168 Dissenters' Rights Of Persons With After-Acquired Limited Liability Company
4 Interests. A limited liability company may elect to withhold payment required by RSA 304-C:166
5 from a dissenter unless the dissenter was a member before the date set forth in the dissenters' notice
6 as of the date of the first announcement to news media or to members of the principal terms of the 7 proposed limited liability company action.

8 304-C:169 Procedures if Members are Dissatisfied With Payments or Offers of Payment.

9 I. A dissenter may notify the limited liability company in writing of the dissenter's own estimate 10 of the fair value of such dissenter's limited liability company interest and amount of interest due, and 11 demand payment of the dissenter's estimate, less any payment under RSA 304-C:166, if:

12 (a) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under RSA 304-C:166 is less than the 13 fair value of the dissenter's limited liability company interest or that the interest due is incorrectly 14 calculated; or

15 (b) The limited liability company fails to make payment under RSA 304-C:166 within 60
16 days after the date set for demanding payment.

17 II. A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter
18 notifies the limited liability company of the dissenter's demand in writing under paragraph I within 19 30 days after the limited liability company made or offered payment for such dissenter's limited
20 liability company interest.

21 304-C:170 Appraisal Actions.

22 I. If a demand for payment under RSA 304-C:169 remains unsettled, the limited liability 23 company shall commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and 24 petition the superior court to determine the fair value of the limited liability company interest and 25 accrued interest. If the limited liability company does not commence the proceeding within the 60-26 day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

27 II. The limited liability company shall commence the proceeding in superior court of the 28 county where the limited liability company's principal executive office or, if none in this state, its 29 registered office, is located.

30 III. If the limited liability company is a surviving foreign entity without a registered office in 31 this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of 32 the domestic limited liability company merged or converted into with the foreign limited liability 33 company was located.

34 IV. The limited liability company shall make all dissenters, whether or not residents of this 35 state, whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding as in an action against their 36 limited liability company interests, and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition.

- Page 59 -

1 Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

2 V. The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under paragraph I is 3 plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence
4 and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers shall have the powers
5 described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The dissenters shall be entitled 6 to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

7 VI. Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding shall be entitled to judgment:

8 (a) For the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's 9 membership rights plus accrued interest exceeds the amount paid by the limited liability company; or

10 (b) For the fair value, plus accrued interest, of such dissenter's after-acquired 11 membership rights for which the limited liability company elected to withhold payment under 12 RSA 304-C:168.

13 VII. The limited liability company shall be entitled to judgment against each specific 14 dissenter for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of such dissenter's
15 membership rights, plus accrued interest, is less than the amount paid by the limited liability 16 company to each dissenter.

17 304-C:171 Allocations of Court Costs and Counsel Fees in Appraisal Actions.

18 I. The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under RSA 304-C:170 shall determine all 19 costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed 20 by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the limited liability company, except that the 21 court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to 22 the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily or not in good faith in demanding payment
23 under RSA 304-C:169.

24 II. The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective 25 parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

26 (a) Against the limited liability company and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court
27 finds the limited liability company did not substantially comply with the requirements of RSA 304-
28 C:161 through RSA 304-C:169.

29 (b) Against either the limited liability company or a dissenter, in favor of any other 30 party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted 31 arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this subdivision.

32 III. If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit 33 to other dissenters similarly situated and that the fees for those services should not be assessed 34 against the limited liability company, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be 35 paid out of the amount awarded to the dissenters who were benefited.

36 304-C:172 Procedures Relating to Transferees of Limited Liability Company Interests.

CHAPTER 232
SB 203-FN-A – FINAL VERSION
- Page 60 -

1           I. If the member has ceased to be a member upon transfer of his or her limited liability
2 company interest, the transferees of the member's limited liability company interest shall be entitled
3 to exercise all rights of the member under RSA 304-C:161 through RSA 304-C:171.

4           II. When a transfer of all or a portion of a member's limited liability company interest is in 5 effect and a copy is delivered to the limited liability company before the action described in RSA 304-
6 C:166, then, as to that limited liability company interest, the provisions of RSA 304-C:160 through 7 RSA 304-C:171 must be followed subject to the requirements of this section.

8           III. If the member has not ceased to be a member before the action described in RSA 304-
9 C:166, all rights to be exercised and actions to be taken by a member under RSA 304-C:161 through 10 RSA 304-C:171 shall be exercised or taken by the member and not by an transferee of the member's 11 limited liability company interest.

12           IV. As between the limited liability company and the transferees of limited liability company 13 interests in the limited liability company, the actions taken or omitted by the member bind the 14 transferees, and the following requirements shall apply:

15               (a) Instead of remitting a payment under RSA 304-C:166, the limited liability company
16 shall forward to the dissenting member:

17                       (1) The materials described in RSA 304-C:166, II;

18                       (2) An offer to pay the amount listed in the materials, with that amount to be 19 allocated among and paid to the member and the transferees of the limited liability company interest 20 according to the terms of the transfer reflected in the required records; and 21                       (3) A statement of that allocation.

22               (b) If the dissenting member accepts the amount of the offer made under RSA 304-C:166
23 but disputes the allocation, the dissenter shall promptly so notify the limited liability company and 24 within 60 days after the notification commence a proceeding and petition the court to determine the 25 proper allocation.

26               (c) The dissenting member shall commence the proceeding in superior court of the county
27 in which the principal office of the limited liability company or, if none, its registered office, is 28 located, or in the case of a surviving foreign limited liability company or other entity that is 29 complying with this section following a merger with or conversion of a limited liability company, the 30 member shall commence the proceeding in superior court of the county in this state in which the last 31 registered office of the limited liability company was located.

32           V. The petition filed under subparagraph IV(b) shall name as parties the member, the limited
33 liability company and all transferees of the member's limited liability interest. Upon being served 34 with the petition, the limited liability company shall promptly pay into the court the amount offered
35 under subparagraph IV(a) and shall then be dismissed from the proceeding.

CHAPTER 232
SB 203-FN-A – FINAL VERSION
- Page 61 -

1 VI. If the dissenter considers the amount offered under subparagraph IV(a) inadequate, the 2 dissenter may decline the offer and demand payment under RSA 304-C:169. If the dissenter makes 3 demand for payment, RSA 304-C:170 and RSA 304-C:171 apply with the court having jurisdiction to 4 determine the correctness of the allocation.

5 VII. If the dissenting member fails to act under RSA 304-C:169, then:

6 (a) As to the limited liability company, both the member and the transferees of the 7 member's limited liability company interests are limited to the amount and allocation offered under 8 paragraph IV; and

9 (b) The limited liability company discharges its obligation of payment by making
10 payment according to the amount and allocation offered under paragraph IV.

11 VIII. If the member has ceased to be a member upon the transfer of the member's limited 12 liability company interest, the transferees of the member's limited liability company interest shall be 13 entitled to exercise all rights of the member under RSA 304-C:161 through RSA 304-C:171.

14 Foreign Limited Liability Companies

15 304-C:173 Law Governing Foreign Limited Liability Companies.

12 (c) Is a member or manager of a limited liability company or foreign limited liability

14 III. This section does not apply in determining the contacts or activities that may subject a 15 foreign limited liability company to service of process or taxation in this state or to regulation under 16 any other law of this state, and nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude a determination 17 that a foreign limited liability company is carrying on a business activity in this state within the 18 meaning of RSA 77-A:1, XII.

19 304-C:175 Requirement of Registration by Foreign Limited Liability Companies; Applications

4           (b) The secretary shall file and index the endorsed application.

5           II. The secretary shall return a copy of the application, similarly endorsed, to the person who

20 secretary of state and shall be signed on behalf of the foreign limited liability company by a person
21 with authority to do so under the laws of the state or other jurisdiction of its formation, or, if the 22 foreign limited liability company is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or other court-appointed 23 fiduciary, by that fiduciary.

24           III. A cancellation does not terminate the authority of the secretary of state to accept service 25 of process on the foreign limited liability company with respect to causes of action arising out of the 26 doing of business in this state.

27           304-C:180 Doing Business Without Registration.

28           I. A foreign limited liability company doing business in New Hampshire may not maintain 29 any action, suit or proceeding in New Hampshire until it has registered in New Hampshire and has 30 paid all fees for the period during which it did business in New Hampshire while unregistered.

31           II. The failure of a foreign limited liability company to register in New Hampshire does not:

32           (a) Impair the validity of any contract or act of the foreign limited liability company.

33           (b) Impair the right of any other party to the contract to maintain any action, suit, or 34 proceeding on the contract.

35           (c) Prevent the foreign limited liability company from defending any action, suit, or 36 proceeding in any court of New Hampshire.

1           III. A member or a manager of a foreign limited liability company is not liable for the 2 obligations of the foreign limited liability company solely by reason of the limited liability company's 3 having done business in New Hampshire without registration.

4           IV. A foreign limited liability company which does business in this state without registration
5 shall be liable to the state for the years or parts of the year during which it transacted business in 6 this state without registration in an amount equal to all fees which would have been imposed by this 7 act upon that foreign limited liability company had it duly registered, and all penalties imposed by 8 this act. The attorney general may bring proceedings to recover all amounts due this state under the 9 provisions of this section.

10           304-C:181 Service of Process on Registered Foreign Limited Liability Companies.

11           I. A foreign limited liability company's registered agent is the agent for service of process, 12 notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the foreign limited liability company.

13           II. If a foreign limited liability company has no registered agent, or the agent cannot with 14 reasonable diligence be served, the foreign limited liability company may be served by registered or 15 certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the foreign limited liability company at its 16 principal office. Service is perfected under this section at the earliest of:

22           III. This section does not prescribe the only means, or necessarily the required means, of 23 serving a foreign limited liability company.

24           304-C:182 Service of Process on Unregistered Foreign Limited Liability Companies.

25           I. Any foreign limited liability company not registered under RSA 304-C:175, doing business
26 in New Hampshire shall be deemed to have appointed and constituted the secretary of state of New 27 Hampshire its agent for the acceptance of legal process in any action, suit, or proceeding, whether 28 criminal or civil, against it in any state or federal court in New Hampshire arising or growing out of 29 any business done by it within New Hampshire.

30           II. The doing of business in New Hampshire by such foreign limited liability company shall 31 be a signification of the agreement of such foreign limited liability company that any such process
32 when so served shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served upon an authorized manager
33 or agent personally within New Hampshire.

34           III. Whenever the words "doing business," "the doing of business," or "business done in this 35 state," by any such foreign limited liability company are used in this section, they shall mean the 36 course of practice of carrying on any business activities in New Hampshire, including, without

4 304-C:183 Grounds for Revocation. The secretary of state may commence a proceeding under 5 RSA 304-C:184 to revoke the registration of a foreign limited liability company authorized to 6 transact business in this state if:

7 I. The foreign limited liability company does not deliver its annual report to the secretary of 8 state within 60 days after it is due;

9 II. The foreign limited liability company does not pay within 60 days after they are due any 10 franchise taxes or penalties imposed by this act or other law;

11 III. The foreign limited liability company is without a registered agent or registered office in 12 this state for 60 days or more;

13 IV. A member, manager, or agent of the foreign limited liability company signed a document

15 secretary of state for filing; or

16 V. The secretary of state receives a duly authenticated certificate from the secretary of state 17 or other official having the custody of limited liability company records in the state or country under 18 whose law the foreign limited liability company is formed stating that it has been dissolved or 19 disappeared as the result of a merger.

20 304-C:184 Procedures for and Effect of Revocation.

21 I. If the secretary of state determines that one or more grounds exist under RSA 304-C:183
22 for revocation of a registration, the secretary shall send written notice of the secretary's 23 determination under RSA 304-C:183 to the foreign limited liability company.

24 II. If the foreign limited liability company does not correct each ground for revocation or 25 demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the secretary of state that each ground determined by 26 the secretary of state does not exist within 60 days after written notice is sent, the secretary of state 27 may revoke the foreign limited liability company's registration by issuing a notice of revocation and 28 mailing the notice of revocation to the foreign limited liability company at its principal office listed
29 on the records of the New Hampshire secretary of state.

30 III. The authority of a foreign limited liability to transact business in this state ceases on the 31 date shown on the notice of revocation.

32 IV. Revocation of a foreign limited liability company's registration does not terminate the 33 authority of the registered agent of the limited liability company.

34 304-C:185 Appeals From Revocations.

35 I. A foreign limited liability company may appeal the secretary of state's revocation of its 4 adverse to the interest of the limited liability company shall be excluded.

5 III. If an action brought under paragraph I or II is successful, in whole or in part, as a result
6 of a judgment, compromise, or settlement of the action, the court may award the plaintiff reasonable
7 expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, from any recovery in the action or from the limited
8 liability company.

9 304-C:189 Effects of Lack of Authority to Bring Actions. The lack of authority of a member or 10 manager to sue on behalf of the limited liability company may not be asserted as a defense to an 11 action by the limited liability company or by the limited liability company as a basis for bringing a 12 subsequent suit on the same cause of action.

13 304-C:190 Right of Members to Bring Direct Actions. Nothing in this subdivision shall be 14 construed to restrict the right of a member or manager to bring a direct action on his or her own
