HB 563 FISCAL NOTE

AN ACT relative to tuition and transportation payments for students attending a vocational education program.

FISCAL IMPACT:

The Department of Education states this bill, as introduced, will have no fiscal impact on state, county, and local revenues or expenditures.

METHODOLOGY:

The Department of Education states this bill requires that all payments for vocational education tuition and transportation made to a school district be used exclusively for the vocational education program. The Department notes tuition and transportation aid is paid out to municipalities on a reimbursement with reimbursements for a given school year being made in the month of December during the subsequent school year. Accordingly, the proposed legislation would have no fiscal impact on state, county, or local expenditures or revenues.
