STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Fourteen

AN ACT                   relative to grounds for divorce for persons with minor children.

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

1           1 Causes for Divorce; Irreconcilable Differences; Limited to Cases Without Minor Children.

2 Amend RSA 458:7-a to read as follows:

3           458:7-a Absolute Divorce, Irreconcilable Differences. A divorce from the bonds of matrimony
4 shall be decreed, irrespective of the fault of either party, on the ground of irreconcilable differences
5 which have caused the irremediable breakdown of the marriage only if there are no minor
6 children of the parties. In any pleading or hearing of a petition for divorce under this section,
7 allegations or evidence of specific acts of misconduct shall be improper and inadmissible, except
8 ~~[where parental rights and responsibilities are an issue and such evidence is relevant to establish~~
9 ~~that a particular allocation of parental rights and responsibilities would be detrimental to the child~~
10 ~~or]~~ at a hearing where it is determined by the court to be necessary to establish the existence of 11 irreconcilable differences. If, upon hearing of an action for divorce under this section, both parties
12 are found to have committed an act or acts which justify a finding of irreconcilable differences, a
13 divorce shall be decreed and the acts of one party shall not negate the acts of the other nor bar the 14 divorce decree. The court's findings and decree may be based on oral testimony or written 15 stipulations of the parties.

16           2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2015.
