Readopt with amendment He-W 672.02, effective 01-24-2024 (Document #10511), as amended effective 09-01-15 (Document # 10923) to read as follows:

He-W 672.02 Initiation of Adult Category Financial Assistance.

(a) Adult category financial assistance shall begin effective with the payment period in which eligibility is determined, provided that the case is eligible on the date payment is issued.

(b) When eligibility for aid to the needy blind (ANB) or aid to the permanently and totally disabled (APTD) is denied solely due to a disability determination unit (DDU) decision and the DDU decision is subsequently reversed, financial assistance shall be determined beginning on the first day of the month of that denial decision, provided:

(1) All general, technical, and categorical eligibility requirements are met; and

(2) Either of the following apply:

a. The DDU reversal is based on review of medical information prior to an administrative appeal; or

b. The DDU decision is reversed as a result of an administrative appeal.

(c) When an eligibility determination is made after the 45-day or 90-day application processing period, pursuant to 42 CFR 435.911 and 42 CFR 435.912, financial assistance shall begin effective with the payment period of the month in which:

(1) The 45th day fell, for old age assistance and ANB applicants; or

(2) The 90th day fell, for APTD applicants.
