Sen. Gray statement on amendment apportioning Executive Council Districts

CONCORD, NH – Sen. Jim Gray (R-Rochester) issued the following statement today regarding the amendment to Senate Bill 241 on the apportionment of Executive Council Districts:

“The most common concern we heard during our ten public hearings across the state was District 2 stretching from the Vermont border to the Seacoast. This proposal addresses that concern while also lowering the total population deviation to 1.26%.”
