Subject: HB 52 does not past the smell test

Colleagues,

As a longtime resident of CD-1, I have been represented by members of both parties. I believe this is an indication of a fairly balanced constituency and there is no need or justification for the changes offered in the Republican maps. The proper way to win elections is by nominating the best candidate - not by shifting the electorate to tilt the scales toward one party or the other. This does not pass the smell test.
