ANALYSIS

This concurrent resolution affirms the general court's support for the New Hampshire's first in the nation primary.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Twenty Three

A RESOLUTION affirming the general court's support for New Hampshire's first in the nation primary.

1 Whereas, New Hampshire first held a primary election for president in 1916, and has held the 2 first in the nation presidential primary since 1920; and

3 Whereas, New Hampshire's first in the nation presidential primary is a historic and valued 4 landmark in our state and our nation's democratic culture; and

5 Whereas, New Hampshire voters have consistently and proudly had one of the highest 6 participation rates in the nation, cherishing their role in vetting presidential candidates through 7 person-to-person, grassroots campaigning; and

8 Whereas, the need to engage with voters across New Hampshire provides a necessary proving 9 ground for candidates wishing to serve in the most powerful office in the world, not only testing their 10 political skills but better preparing them for the Oval Office; and

11 Whereas, attempts by national political organizations to alter the presidential nominating 12 calendar and dictate election laws to the people of New Hampshire have been met with widespread, 13 bipartisan condemnation; and

14 Whereas, New Hampshire's first in the nation presidential primary has grown over the past 15 century into a vital part of our state's identity; now, therefore be it

16 Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring:

17 That the general court of the state of New Hampshire hereby affirms its support for New 18 Hampshire's first in the nation presidential primary, and its confidence in the secretary of state to 19 ensure that New Hampshire's primary maintain its legal and proper status at least one week before 20 any similar nominating contest.

21 That the general court expects all political parties to respect the results of New Hampshire's first 22 in the nation presidential primary by seating the delegates selected by New Hampshire voters at 23 their national nominating conventions.
