*The New Hampshire Retirement System states it is not able to separate the fiscal impact of this legislation between county and local government, therefore the fiscal impact is shown together as political subdivision.

METHODOLOGY:

This bill increases the number of hours a New Hampshire Retirement System (NHRS) retiree may work in a calendar year, for a NHRS participating employer, from 1,352 to 1,664 and eliminates the initial 28-day restriction on such part-time employment after retiring. The NHRS states there is no fiscal impact to the increase in limit on the number of hours nor the elimination of the 28-day prohibition on part-time work for new retirees. However, to the extent the need for full-time positions are reduced there would be an indeterminable impact on state, county and local expenditures.

It is assumed any fiscal impact would not occur until FY 2023.
