STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Twenty Three

A RESOLUTION       relative to condemning the use of violence against supporters of self-governance.

1       Whereas, the right to self-governance is a natural human right and a critical facet of civilized
2 society; now, therefore, be it

3       Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

4       No government is justified in the use of violence or any military action or any acts of war against
5 any group of people who wish to govern themselves. Initiating violence against a group of people for 6 seeking to govern themselves is condemned as barbaric, authoritarian, and antithetical to liberty.
