SENATE JOURNAL 19

June 10, 2021

The Senate reconvened in the House Chamber at 10:00 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Jon Hopkins, Chaplain to the Senate, offered the following prayer:

Let us Pray.

Dear God. We pray that you might give your people patriotism. And give us the kind that loves our country but can see its faults, for there is no human endeavor that is perfect. Give us desire not to think of our country as perfect but to work to make it better. And let us work for those principles. But let us not work as those who are hostile but as those who are helping something that we love, so that we might make the state of New Hampshire and our country a better place to live for all people in it. In patriotism we ask for the blessing of the leaders of the New Hampshire State Senate. May these servants who are in positions of authority take their responsibilities seriously and do their very best each day. May they have a passion for the people they serve for truth and for righteousness. May they work so that all the citizens of New Hampshire may know the blessings of life and liberty. May our dedication to patriotism cause us to work, to better our state and our country. May we work for those who are trying to better their own lives; parents, teachers, business owners, trash collectors, plumbers, electricians, and all those who work to make our state a great place to live. Help us to reach out to all people with a strong desire for peace and harmony to display whenever possible. May the work that we do here produce a more perfect union with the bonds of peace and justice. Amen.

Senator D'Allesandro led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Senator D'Allesandro announced he was participating remotely via Zoom in his home in Manchester.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

(The Chair recognized Senator D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Unanimous Consent, please. Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, first of all, I want to thank you for allowing me to attend these virtually. As all of you know, it's been a very tough month for the D'Allesandro family. I had some emergency surgery and yesterday my wife had some surgery. So, we're both well, we're recovering, but the good wishes of my colleagues in the Senate came fast and furious and I want to thank them all for the courtesies that were bestowed on me and to the staff of the Senate; Annie who delivered me the materials, and all others. Really, it's remarkable how kind and generous they were on behalf of us. Listen, something like this just doesn't happen and we have once in a lifetime. But I'll tell you this was a trauma that I hope nobody else has to go through. But again, thank my colleagues for their kindness, their respect, and I certainly appreciate all of the good wishes and I can't thank everybody enough. And you know, I thank our lucky stars that my wife did so well and she's right there and her health is good and her prognosis is very good. Thank you very much, Mister President.

PRESIDENT MORSE: Thank you, Senator D'Allesandro. I just want you to know we're all thinking about you. We actually met at 11:00 and talked about the fact that you better be coming in to listen to HB 1 tomorrow at 11:00. We all have our cellphones. It seems to be how we survive lately so we'll be waiting to hear from you.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you.

PRESIDENT MORSE: Any further announcements? I have one and I wish I had done this a week earlier but, I'm pretty sure Nancy LeVinus started when I started in the House back in the late 90s. But as some of you may already know, Nancy LeVinus is one of the budget analysts from the Legislative Budget Assistant's Office retired at the beginning of June. She wanted that to be unknown forever. Between LBA and House Research, Nancy was with the Legislature for more than twenty years. Nancy, the Senate thanks you for your dedicated service and wishes you all the best in retirement.

Without objection, all personal privileges and unanimous consent shall be entered into the permanent Journal of the Senate. (Rule 2-16 and Rule 2-17). Adopted.
