Statement by Sen. Gray regarding Redistricting Amendments

CONCORD, NH – Sen. James Gray (R-Rochester), Chairman of the Senate Election Law Committee, issued the following statement today:

“We have posted proposed redistricting amendments to the Senate Special Committee on Redistricting website and in the Senate Calendar, giving the people of New Hampshire a chance to review them. The next step in our open and transparent redistricting process will be for the public to share its input at a public hearing on January 10th at 1:00 p.m. in Representatives Hall at the State House. Individuals may also submit their comments electronically to senate.redistricting@leg.state.nh.us.”
