Senate backs bill supporting affordable housing

CONCORD, NH – The Senate unanimously passed legislation (SB152) today that supports financing for affordable housing for individuals and families by accessing additional federal funding and reforming the Homeless Housing and Access program.

Prime sponsor Sen. Jim Gray (R-Rochester) called the legislation important, especially during the pandemic, saying, “Affordable housing continues to be a challenge for New Hampshire. While there is no one single solution to this issue, the changes made in SB152 will bring additional resources to help those struggling with housing and improves an existing program to ensure better outcomes.”
