

New Hampshire House and Senate JOINT NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release: May 12, 2022

Senate President Morse and Speaker of the House Packard issue joint statement on Redistricting Plan for the state's two U.S. Congressional Districts (SB 200)

CONCORD, NH – Senate President Chuck Morse (R-Salem) and Speaker of the House Sherman Packard (R-Londonderry) issued the following joint statement today regarding SB 200:

“The House and Senate have agreed that a Committee of Conference will be scheduled to discuss Senate Bill 200 which includes the redistricting plan for the state’s two U.S. Congressional Districts based on population changes in the federal decennial census.”

“We have directed Rep. Barbara Griffin (R-Goffstown), Chair of the Special Committee on Redistricting, and Sen. Jim Gray (R-Rochester) chair of the Senate Election Law & Municipal Affairs Committee, to work together on a new map apportioning our congressional districts that is constitutional, fair, and released in a timely manner to ensure that the public has an opportunity to provide input.”

“We are confident that our respective committees will be transparent, inclusive, and ultimately successful in their efforts. All Committee of Conference meetings on SB 200 will be open to the public. Details regarding the schedule will be released soon and posted on The General Court of New Hampshire website at: The General Court of New Hampshire \(state.nh.us\) This will include information regarding a live stream on YouTube.”
